

Do Now: Tues. 11/16

- Take your seat and have your Renaissance Art Auction Handout out on your desk - essay side up. Be prepared to share your responses to the following question:
- What do the differences between Renaissance and Middle Ages art tell us about how life changed during the Renaissance?

Objective 11/16

- We will evaluate the most significant political, economic, religious, and social factors that led the development of the Renaissance in Europe
- How are we going to accomplish this?
- What will we need to know to be able to meet this objective?

The Renaissance

- Focus Questions:
- What is the Renaissance?
- Which category - political, social, economic, and/or religious played the most significant role in the development of the Renaissance?

Categories

1.

2.

3.

4.

While you read...

- (7 minutes) You will identify the facts about the development of the Renaissance
  - Categorize those facts - is this fact economic, political? etc.
  - Document at least one fact per category.
  - Summarize in your own words what the Renaissance is in the bottom box on your graphic organizer.

Expert Groups

- (7 minutes) You will first independently read and take notes regarding a specific event or group of people that directly influenced the development of the Renaissance.
- Groups: The Crusades, The Black Death, The Abbasid Dynasty, and City-States in Italy
- While you read, identify the most important facts, and briefly summarize them in the appropriate category.
- Don't forget you are looking for information to answer the focus question.

Mixed Groups

- In your mixed groups, you will do the following:
  - summarize your topic
  - identify the most important facts and the categories they go under
  - verbal not visual

Exit Ticket

- On the back of your sheet, respond to the focus question:
- Which category - political, social, religious, or economic played the most important role in the development of the Renaissance?